

JOHN GALLAGHER MEMORIAL 400 MILE RACE

NEW RULES

In order to generate more interest and competition for this inaugural race, the Unit Ten Racing Pigeon Club Board of Directors has developed the following new rules:

1. This race is open to Unit Ten Club members only.
2. All old birds are eligible – any age.
3. Band numbers do not have to be stated before race day.
4. Club members can enter the race by simply purchasing entry tickets.
5. Show up on shipping night and enter your best birds using one ticket per bird entered.
Nominate your best birds on shipping night.
6. Entry tickets can be purchased at Chris' Feed Store during the month of January for $ 50 each.
Entry tickets purchased during February will cost $ 100 each.
All entry fees must be paid in cash or check, no credit.
7. Shipping night for this Gallagher Memorial 400-mile race is on Thursday, February 26.
This is the second Tampa Bay Combine 400-mile race in the schedule.
8. Gallagher birds will be released with all the Combine birds.
Gallagher birds can still earn Club and Combine honors.
9. Gallagher birds entered into the race will be taken off the Combine race sheet on February 28 to determine the winners and order of finish.
10. Prizes will be given out after knock off.
11. The Unit Ten Club will not take a handling fee for this race.
12. Prize payout will be as follows:
